⭐ Level 1: read the dialogue

Read it with your partner. Change the underlined words with your customer card. Finished? Swap roles.

Shopkeeper:	Good afternoon. Can I help you?
Customer:	Yes, please. Could I have that red T-shirt?
Shopkeeper:	What size would you like?
Customer:	Medium, please. Can I try it on?
Shopkeeper:	Of course. Does it fit?
Customer:	Yes, it fits! How much is it?
Shopkeeper:	It's only three pounds fifty.
Customer:	Can I pay cash, please?
Shopkeeper:	Sure. Here you are.
Customer:	Thank you!
Shopkeeper:	You're welcome.

⭐⭐ Level 2: fill in the gaps

Use your customer card and the shopkeeper sheet. Say the words, you don't have to write them. Finished? Swap roles.

Shopkeeper:	Good afternoon. Can I help you?
Customer:	Yes, please. Could I have that _____ (colour) _____ (clothes)?
Shopkeeper:	What size would you like?
Customer:	_____ (size), please. Can I try it on?
Shopkeeper:	Of course. Does it fit?
Customer:	Yes, it fits! _____ (ask the price)?
Shopkeeper:	It's only _____ (price).
Customer:	Can I _____ (pay) cash, please?
Shopkeeper:	Sure. Here you are.
Customer:	Thank you!
Shopkeeper:	You're welcome.

⭐⭐⭐ Level 3: challenge

No dialogue: make it up yourself. Pick one card. The shopkeeper picks a secret card too.

Customer

You want trainers, size large. You have £20. Ask the price. Too expensive? Ask for something cheaper.

You bought a sweater yesterday. It doesn't fit. Ask for a refund. Show your receipt.

You want a hoodie, but not grey. Ask which colours they have. Try it on: it is too small.

You want a present for your friend. Ask the shopkeeper to wrap it up as a parcel.

Shopkeeper (secret!)

You have no size large left. Say sorry and offer another size or colour.

The customer wants a refund. Ask for the receipt first.

Today everything is cheaper! Give the customer one pound off.

The customer can't pay cash today. Say: You can also pay by card.
