Customer cards

Cut out. Every customer gets one card. Each round you buy the next thing on your card.

Customer card 1

Round 1: a red T-shirt, size M. You have £5.
Round 2: a white socks, size L. You have £2.
Round 3: a blue jeans, size S. You have £15.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 2

Round 1: a green sweater, size L. You have £10.
Round 2: a yellow cap, size one size. You have £5.
Round 3: a black trainers, size M. You have £25.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 3

Round 1: a grey hoodie, size M. You have £20.
Round 2: a orange socks, size S. You have £2.
Round 3: a red scarf, size one size. You have £6.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 4

Round 1: a yellow raincoat, size L. You have £20.
Round 2: a black T-shirt, size S. You have £4.
Round 3: a blue shorts, size L. You have £7.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 5

Round 1: a black jeans, size M. You have £13.
Round 2: a pink hoodie, size S. You have £16.
Round 3: a white T-shirt, size L. You have £4.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 6

Round 1: a blue sweater, size M. You have £8.
Round 2: a green shorts, size S. You have £7.
Round 3: a red cap, size one size. You have £5.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 7

Round 1: a white trainers, size L. You have £25.
Round 2: a purple socks, size M. You have £2.
Round 3: a green scarf, size one size. You have £6.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?

Customer card 8

Round 1: a blue raincoat, size M. You have £20.
Round 2: a red T-shirt, size L. You have £4.
Round 3: a black cap, size one size. You have £5.

Ask the price. Have you got enough money?